

News Release

For Immediate Release

Contact: Allison Schlesinger
412-391-9890

Attorneys from Weiss Burkardt Kramer LLC to Share Expertise on Special Education Due Process Hearings

Jocelyn Kramer and Rebecca Heaton Hall Will Present at a Continuing Legal Education Course Presented Through the Pennsylvania Bar Institute

PITTSBURGH, March 2, 2015 – Attorneys Jocelyn Kramer and Rebecca Heaton Hall will sit on a panel of experienced practitioners to discuss the stages and nuances of special education due process hearings including negotiation of settlements.

Kramer and Hall will speak about specific topics concerning the basics of IDEA and Section 504 and recent decisions on Exhaustion and the Statute of Limitation. The panel will discuss hearing preparation, the formal proceedings, and negotiating settlements, at a continuing legal education class presented by the Pennsylvania Bar Institute (PBI), the continuing education arm of the Pennsylvania Bar Association. This class will be held March 24 in the PBI Professional Development Center at the Heinz 57 Center.

Weiss Burkardt Kramer attorneys Kramer, Hall and Zundel represent and advise school districts regarding special education, student services and discipline. These special education professionals have 25 years of combined experience – something not found in any other Western Pennsylvania law firm.

They frequently provide in-service training to staff and school boards and appear at speaking engagements across the state to discuss how to serve students with special needs in a legally compliant and fiscally responsible manner. Attorney Kramer has been featured in the premier special education research resource, Special Ed Connection, produced by LRP publications.

Weiss Burkardt Kramer LLC is widely acknowledged as one of Pennsylvania's leading public sector law firms focusing exclusively on education and municipal law. The firm also operates a delinquent tax collection service for municipalities and school districts throughout Western Pennsylvania.

For four decades, Ira Weiss and his team have advised municipalities and school districts on matters relating to public sector finance, local taxation, special education, labor and employment, zoning, construction litigation, legislative enactments and general litigation.

For more information about Weiss Burkardt Kramer LLC, visit www.wbklegal.com.

###